FOR LADIES, TOO.

They Can Stop Their Hair Falling Out With Herpicide.

Ladies who have thin hair and whose hair is falling out, can prevent the hair falling out, and thicken the growth, with Newbro's "Herpicide." Besides, Herpicide is one of the most agreeable hair dressings there is. Herpicide kills the dandruff germ that eats the hair off at the root. After the germ is destroyed, the root will shoot up, and the hair grow long as ever. Even a sample will convince any lady that Newbro's Herpicide is an indispensable toilet requisite. It contains no oil or grease, it will not stain or discolor. Sold by leading druggists. Send 1c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

LETTER FROM RICHMOND.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., March 13.—The Capitol presents a deserted appearance these days, though in accordance with the constitutional provision, the House is constructively in session and will be until Thursday. The great body of members have gone to their homes to account to their constituents "for things done which they ought not have done, and for things left undone which they ought to have done," and yet with (the great majority), a consciousness of duty faithfully performed. The great proportion of legislation enacted has been of a nature beneficial to the State's great interest. Among the men who have eminently distinguished themselves is Col. James R. Canon, of Alexandria, who has had the honor of creating a bureau of insurance, something the State has needed many years, both for the protection of the insured and the legitimate companies and associations. It is particularly noteworthy by virtue of the fact that by its formation it will not be a burden on the State, but will be maintained by the associations to which it gives protection. His fight for the local taxation of rolling stock of railroad companies has challenged the admiration of the General Assembly. After the passing by indefinitely by the committee, he forced an adverse report on the House, had the bill engrossed by a vote of 57 to 28 and after a remarkable fight for final action by the House, secured a vote in favor of the measure by the vote of 40 to 26, but on account of the lack of a constitutional majority, the bill failed of passage by that body. He also had passed in the House the measure for the change of the constitution, allowing in street improvement the assessing of abutting property owners. Quite a sensation was sprung on the legislature on Saturday night by the statement of a Senator that certain bills had been tampered with. A committee was appointed to investigate the matter, but from present developments it looks as though it were simply a tempest in a teapot, and that a mare's nest has been found without eggs. Senator Lewis H. Machen has been one of the most popular and hardest worked members of the Senate. Taken all in all this legislature will go down in history as the hardest worked body in the history of the State. J. F. B.

Warrants for Serenaders.

Because he was besieged in his home all night, and because of damage to his property by strenuous serenaders upon the occasion of the wedding of his son, H. J. Mossbury, of Perryopolis, Pa., has sworn out warrants for the arrest of many of the town's prominent young men. Mr. Mossbury says that the serenaders made him a target for sticks and stones, riddled his house with shot and caused other damage with dynamite. In addition to the criminal prosecution, Mr. Mossbury announces he will bring civil suits against the offenders.

The serenaders, fifty in number, appeared at the Mossbury home last Thursday night, and when Mossbury with his son and daughter-in-law appeared on the porch the crowd threw a volley of stones, one of these hitting the elder man on the leg, causing a painful wound. Incensed, he drew a revolver and firing into the air, ordered the crowd to leave.

His act only served to enrage them, and after sending a part of their number after shotguns, members of the mob began a fusillade which did not diminish until nearly four hours later. Over 350 shots were fired during this time, and when the crowd ceased firing at 2 o'clock Friday morning, the shade trees in the front yard were shot to pieces, the roof of the porch and parts of the house were riddled with shot, and the fences in the immediate vicinity were laid flat on the ground.

Later the besieging force secured five sticks of dynamite and exploded all of them simultaneously. Nearly every window in the house was shattered and its occupants were badly frightened.

When the crowd dispersed, nearly two bushels of empty shotgun shells were picked up in the front yard.

Bishop Defiant.

An exciting scene occurred yesterday at the doors of the Cathedral at Mar-seilles. The local authorities attempted to take an inventory under the church and state separation law, whereupon the bishop, wearing his miter, and surrounded by the congregation chanting, ordered the authorities not to enter the cathedral and read a declaration denouncing the law as renewing the evils which brought on the revolution and reign of terror. The bishop added:

"Here, before the altar, I announce that I am prepared to suffer imprisonment, exile or death in defending the rights of the church."

The authorities withdrew in order to avoid trouble. The cathedral will be closed day and night and guards, who will keep regular watches, have been ordered.

The best safeguard against headaches, constipation and liver troubles is DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They don't gripe. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

TWO OPEN LETTERS

IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN

Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.

It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters, as they convincingly prove the claim we have so many times made in our columns that Mrs.

Mrs. Mary Dimmick

Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., is fully qualified to give helpful advice to sick women. Read Mrs. Dimmick's letters.

Her first letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from painful periods—the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the female organs. The doctor says I must have an operation or I cannot live. I do not want to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D. C.

Her second letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"You will remember my condition when I last wrote you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice very carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 50th and East Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply!

As Mrs. Dimmick says—it saved her life. Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of just such letters as the above, and offers ailing women helpful advice.

organized to resist the government inspectors.

The population of the town of Courcouron determined to resist the taking of the inventory of the church under the separation law. The doors are heavily barricaded and strong grates have been fastened across the windows. A hundred men armed with rifles and provisioned for a long siege are installed inside the edifice.

A dispatch from Rome says that the Vatican has been following the French cabinet crisis with the keenest interest but its solution is considered to complete the disaster to the Catholic Church in France. A prominent prelate exclaimed yesterday: "We have fallen from the frying pan into the fire." The Vatican authorities received a dispatch yesterday giving the names of the members of the new cabinet, with the additional statement that its composition will not be officially announced until today, because yesterday being the thirteenth day of the month, is considered to be unlucky. The Pontiff smiled sadly when this information was conveyed to him, saying:

"Evidently being a freethinker bad days do not exclude superstition. Bad days are preparing for the dear, dear Catholics in France."

Starving to Death.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugging that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." Best Health Tonic on earth. 50c. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons druggists.

For an Impaired Appetite.
